About ICLC

History

The longest history as a Japanese language school in Okinawa.

Diversity

The most international student body in Okinawa.

Culture

School events and activities to learn local culture.

Education

Quality classes taught by teachers with multi-lingual support.

ICLC (International Center of Culture and Language) was established in 1983.

As Okinawa's oldest Japanese language school, we have welcomed students from over 50 countries throughout our history. With experience and knowledge over the many years, we provide education that meets the needs and goals of each student.

Why Okinawa?

Study in a Calm Environment

Unlike the hustling cities in Japan, Okinawa's calm and relaxing environment is perfect for studying.

Explore Beaches and Islands

Enjoy exploring the 160 remote islands and the many beaches surrounding the main Okinawa island.

Learn the Okinawan Mentality

Dive into Okinawa's unique history and culture, and learn the mentality of peace and harmony valued by Okinawans.
